Michael Castellano

"I have been trained by Mid-Island Air and bought two aircraft from this fine company. When it was time to sell my planes, I also let Mid Island broker the planes for sale. There isn't a company in all my years with more honesty, integrity, and respect for its clients than Mid-Island Air and the Mancuso family. I have been flying with Mid-Island Air for over 35 years and it has been such a wonderful experience. If I was asked to write a mission statement for this company, it would be honesty, integrity, respect, reliability, and always doing what is best for their clients and anything other than this would be just wrong."

Eric W. Gray

"I've known and done business with Louis Mancuso for nearly six years. Lou is a very honest, fair, and knowledgeable aviation professional. I wouldn't hesitate to buy an aircraft from Mid-Island Air Service or Sport Flying USA."

Anton Murray-Hill

"Lou Mancuso and his family gave me free accommodations when I started flight training and have always been there for me when I needed help. Do not ever question his integrity."
