

MedicReS
Good Medical Researcher Online Trainings,
E-PICOS Intelligent Biostatistics Software and Certificate Programs
COOPERATION PROTOCOL

1) Purpose, Scope, and Definitions

The purpose of cooperation:

- a) Providing free access to undergraduate, graduate students, academic staff, MedicReS club membership program and BeGMR certificate program in the Faculty of Medicine, Dentistry, Pharmacy and Health Sciences affiliated to your institution and affiliated hospital (s).
- b) Methodology which is valid in the planning, analyzing and publication of the theses carried out within the scope of the specialty education in the medicine given in the medical (Dentistry, Pharmacy and Health Sciences Faculties and affiliated hospital (s) affiliated to your institution and during the literature search, reading and interpretation studies conducted in the medical specialty education, providing scientific support and contribution to the academic studies carried out, online-based trainings based on MedicReS Good Medical Researcher trainings, E-PICOS Intelligent Biostatistics Software and certificate programs, which include ethical and biostatistics information, to assume a role in the development of medical science of your country and the training of future medical scientists. Students and academic staff benefit from MedicReS programs.
- c) Increasing the quality of scientific researches that lead to preventive medicine, accurate and early diagnosis, valid and effective treatment and drug development studies in the world, and to believe that the results of scientific studies that directly affect the health of the society as a result of these training contribute to the reliability and long term contribution of the patients in the research to science.

Scope: This protocol covers the cooperation clauses between your Institution and MedicReS EU HQ's on ... / ... / .....

2) MedicReS EU HQ's responsibilities

- a) BeGMR Online is responsible for providing free access to MedicReS Club members within your organization and providing technical support to members for membership procedures.

Responsibilities of the Institution

- a) Purpose of Collaboration In order to ensure the completion of registration for the BeGMR program, which will be given free of charge by MedicReS, within one year (365 Days) following the protocol signature date of all undergraduate and graduate students and academic staff in all the structures specified in Article a, internal regulations and information shall be made by means of ensuring completion.

3) Service Termination and Other Issues

- a) This program is conducted in collaboration with MedicReS's scientific content contributions, participatory support, and contributions from your organization.
- b) After users create their accounts on www.medicres.club platform, BeGMR certification program course and exam questions will be uploaded to their accounts automatically.
- c) The duration of the Protocol is one year. If there is no request from the parties at the end of one year, the protocol will be extended for one year period.
- d) Participants can access the training free of charge, if they wish to complete their exams and receive their certificates; they can pay their certifications according to the fee details at <https://www.medicres.org/certificate-programs.html>.
- e) Optionally, participants can purchase and use licensed, internationally valid, smart biostatistics software (E-PICOS) developed by MedicReS, which they can easily apply what they have learned in free training. This software is specialized programs that include all the international standards required in research planning, analyzing and writing / publication stages such as online data entry, estimating the sample size needed in research, preparing ethical committee application, data analysis, determining which statistical method to use, article evaluation. For detailed information and fees, please visit <https://www.medicres.org/software.html>

4) Final Provisions and Citations

- a) This Protocol shall enter into force after signature by the parties concerned.
- b) In this cooperation process, your institution does not commit other than publicity and private information.

.../.../...
MedicReS EU HQ's Vienna Austria
MedicReS
Burak AKICIER
General Director

Signature

.../.../...
Institution Name
Name Surname
Title

Signature