[New York, March 20, 2017] – Chiara Ajkun brings the passionate love story of Princess Anna Karenina and Count Alexey Vronskiy against the odds of a hypocritical society to life in her newest choreography.

Tolstoj's literary style, the display of thoughts and feelings going through one's mind, inspired choreographer Chiara Ajkun to create a ballet based on the internal monologue. Anna and Alexey's love questions the tacit rules of society, and intertwines with the stories of many other characters who personify the stereotypes of a bigot community.

Chiara Ajkun's internationally acclaimed choreography performed as part of our Face to Face series, which affords the audience a close-up to the performers in the intimacy of our studios.

Anna Karenina is performed at the City Center Studios 130 West 56th Street, NYC-NY 10019

Thursday, April 13 at 7:30pm, Friday, April 14 at 7:30pm & Saturday, April 15 at 6:30pm.

Tickets [General Admission $20] are on sale Online: www.ajkunbt.org, By Phone: 212-868-4444

All proceeds of this Event benefit "Creativity Matters" a program designed to support the creation of new Art offsetting rehearsals and costume costs.
