

GPM Mobile Notary

954 710.5906

gellernotary@gmail.com

I am available to handle your notarization needs at your office or your client's office or home.

- Last Will & Testament
- Affidavits
- Power Of Attorney
- Quit Claim Deeds
- Vin Verification
- Living Trust
- Adoption Documents
- Consent Forms
- Loan Signings
(in office or on RON only)

Available 24/7 with advanced scheduling

Florida Statute 117.05(5)(b)

List of acceptable ID's for notarization

A Florida notary public may rely on any of the following 10 forms of identification if the identification has been issued within the past 5 years and bears a serial or other identifying number, or is current (whichever is longer):

-
- A Florida identification card or driver's license issued by the public agency authorized to issue driver licenses
 - A passport issued by the Department of State
 - A passport issued by a foreign government if the document is stamped by the United States Immigration and Naturalization Service
 - A driver's license or an identification card issued by a public agency authorized to issue driver licenses in a state other than Florida or in a territory of the United States, or Canada or Mexico
 - An identification card issued by any branch of the armed forces of the United States
 - A veteran health identification card issued by the United States Department of Veterans Affairs
 - An identification card issued by the United States Immigration and Naturalization Service
 - An inmate identification card issued on or after January 1, 1991, by the Florida Department of Corrections for an inmate who is in the custody of the department
 - An inmate identification card issued by the United States Department of Justice, Bureau of Prisons, for an inmate who is in the custody of the department
 - A sworn, written statement from a sworn law enforcement officer that the forms of identification for an inmate in an institution of confinement were confiscated upon confinement and that the person named in the document is the person whose signature is to be notarized