ERIC ALEXANDER TO DISCUSS COMMUNITIES OF THE FUTURE

Commack, NY- (October 5, 2010) – Eric Alexander, Executive Director of Vision Long Island, will be the keynote speaker at this year's CAI EXPO 2010 to be held on October 23, 2010. Alexander will discuss the role that condominiums, co-ops and homeowners associations will play in the Smart Growth of the Long Island region, as well as how those communities will themselves be affected by such Smart Growth.

Condominiums, cooperative apartment communities and homeowners associations are becoming more and more prevalent on Long Island as density increases, open space becomes scarce, and the population – and in particular the young and senior populations - looks for alternative housing options. Alexander, a proponent of quality development through proper planning and preservation, will explain how these types of communities, if managed wisely, can contribute to the quality of life on Long Island in the years to come.

CAI's Fourth Annual EXPO will take place on Saturday, October 23, 2010 from 9:00 to 2:00 p.m. at the Huntington Hilton Hotel, 598 Broad Hollow Road (Route 110), Melville, New York.

The EXPO will also include seminars on Obtaining FHA Approval for Your Community, Capital Improvements, Your Community's Governing Documents, and Indoor Air Quality.

For more Trade Show information and reservations, contact the CAI-Long Island office at info@cai-li.org or by telephone: (631) 882-8683.

Community Associations Institute (CAI) is a not-for-profit organization with over 200 local members and over 50 chapters across the nation dedicated to providing condominium, cooperative and homeowners association board members with training and networking opportunities. The local Long Island Chapter conducts educational seminars throughout the year. For a schedule of upcoming events and membership information, contact the CAI-Long Island office or visit the CAI website at www.caionline.org.
