2019 All-WDA Volleyball awards announced

JAMESTOWN, N.D. – The Western Dakota Association (WDA) had 18 players named to the all-conference volleyball team, representing eight teams.

WDA regular season champion Bismarck Century led all conference members with four players selected while Jamestown and Bismarck High each had three. Mandan, Bismarck St. Mary's and Dickinson each had two named while Bismarck Legacy and Minot High had one selection.

Players were chosen by WDA coaches and announced at the conclusion of the West Region Tournament.

In addition to the all-WDA team, the region senior athlete of the year and region coach of the year were voted selected and announced.

Jamestown's Kameron Selvig was named senior athlete while Jamie Zastoupil of Bismarck Century was coach of the year.
