Family of the Deceased

She was preceded in death by husband, Jim Moore; sisters Genevieve Klein, Vivian Petrowske, Edna Bresky, and Jacqueline Hamel; brother, James Moeller; stepson Gary Moore, and first husband, Lee R. Case. Ginger is survived by sons: Mark (Kathy) Case of Canton; Brian (Martha) Case of Flushing; step-children: Karen (Mark) Carroll of Romeo; Debby (Pat) Sackrider of Saginaw; Ricky (Kristy) Moore of Minden City; daughter-in-law Debbie (Moore) Fabyan of Bad Axe; sister: Inez Buchholz of Bad Axe; brothers-in-law: Ed (RuthAnn) Moore of Bad Axe; Robert (Mary) Moore of Davison; John (Marge) Moore of Kinde, and Gerald (Kathy) Moore of Royal Oak; many nieces and nephews, as well as eighteen grandchildren and ten great-grandchildren. Ginger's health declined over the last ten years but the love and care she received from the greater Kinde community ensured she was always safe and in good hands. The family truly appreciates the town's outreach and support. Lori and Ken Toner made Ginger's last day on earth special, but also made so many other days bright for her. The family cannot thank them enough. Cheryl and Jerry Horetski were the caring eyes that watched over Ginger almost daily. The family appreciates the help and love they gave her. Niece Linda Schave and neighbor Deanna Rice shared meals with Ginger, drove her around, and did so much to make these last months special. The family appreciates all they meant to Ginger.

Biography

Virginia Ann Moore, 80, of Kinde passed away unexpectedly but peacefully at her home on September 19, 2020 after spending a beautiful and active day canning pears, playing cards, and visiting family and friends. Ginger was born October 4, 1939, to the late John and Emma Moeller. She was a lifetime resident of Kinde and member of St. Peter's Lutheran Church. She was a member of the Port Austin Stompers. Dancing, listening to polka music, playing slots and cards, traveling, golfing, and bowling were the hobbies that kept her on the go. Ginger married Jim Moore on June 16, 1976. Together they wintered in Florida, traveled extensively, and made life-long friends wherever they went. "Grandma Ginger" loved her grandchildren. Seeing them play sports, perform on stage, or just run around the yard brought her great joy. No matter what the kids were up to she always told them to "Have fun!"
