

Moskwa, Ervin

Ervin S. Moskwa, 76, of Caseville, died Sunday evening, March 7, 2004, at Citrus Memorial Hospital in Inverness, Florida. He was born April 27, 1927 in Detroit to the late Thomas and Joanna (Balcerwiak) Moskwa. After high school, he joined the U.S. Army and served in Germany during World War II returning home in January of 1947. In 1951, he began working at Chrysler Corp., Warren Stamping, becoming a tool and die maker. On June 23, 1966, he was united in marriage to Virginia Goelet in Mount Clemens. They built a cottage in Lake Township that year and moved to it permanently in December of 1982 when Ervin retired. Virginia passed away September 4, 1984 and was buried at St. Roch Cemetery. He was a member of the St. Roch Catholic Church and the Caseville Eagles. He is survived by his brother, Norbert Moskwa, of Hernando, Florida.; and sister, Virginia Seracki, of Maple City. A funeral mass will be conducted at 11 a.m. on Friday, March 12, 2004, at St. Roch Catholic Church, Caseville. The Rev. Fr. Kenneth Yaroch, pastor, will officiate with burial next to his wife in the church cemetery. Visitation will be from 2 to 8 p.m. on Thursday at the Champagne Funeral Chapel, Caseville, and after 10 a.m. on Friday at the church. Those unable to attend may sign the guest book at www.CFCCaseville.com.