Dana Graduates!

On December 12, residents of the Oaks, board members, friends, and family gathered to celebrate Dana Pennington and her successful graduation from the program. Dana's accomplishments include completing Celebrate Recovery, WorkFaith, Financial management classes, and Christian counseling. She has renewed relationships within her family, found a job, and a nice place to live.

But her most significant achievement is her restored relationship with God, a relationship on which she can build a successful future. After presenting Dana with her certificate, Terry Amos asked if anyone wanted to share thoughts about Dana and almost everyone present had something powerful to say! Possibly the most moving testimony came from a new resident who said Dana had taken her under her wing and had become her mentor.

Again, congratulations, Dana! You will be missed. And we hold you to your promise to come back and visit and to stay in touch.

A Generous Gift!

In late 2018, the May Jeanne & Garland Slaughter Foundation gave a generous donation to Oaks of Righteousness. This money, along with part of the proceeds from the Oaks fall dinner benefit, was used to do much needed repairs and upgrades to the outside of the Oaks' house.

The work done included a full roof replacement, installation of a new door and two windows, replacement of siding with hardy plank, and the painting of the entire outside of the house. This donation was given to Oaks for making a positive change in the lives of women.
