CURATOR'S REPORT

Candy reported that her sister had sent her a list of 12 western Kansas artists who might be interested in showing their art in the West Wing Gallery this fall. Candy will contact them to determine how many would participate.

Candy and husband Rick has moved to a smaller home in Garnett and will be donating some of their private art collection to the Garnett Art Collection.

Candy's granddaughter has painted a cattle skull which will be placed in the display case located in the West Wing Gallery hallway. Southwest jewelry and artifacts will be shown as well.

OLD BUSINESS

Wanda discussed the need to change the art display in the West Wing Gallery. Tami will contact Angela Weldin to see if she is still interested in showing some of her collection.

The remainder of the meeting was spent placing acquisition paperwork on the back of the paintings in the Garnett Art Collection. The committee is also comparing each piece of art to the list compiled by Sonia Jones so that we can submit it to Archer Insurance to see how much it will cost to have this particular collection appraised for insurance purposes. There were some questions raised about certain pieces in this collection. Joyce will contact Robert Cugno to determine when he plans to visit Garnett to help us complete this task.

Wanda adjourned the meeting at 5:45 p.m. The next meeting will be July 19, 2018. We will continue to work on the Garnett Art Collection.
