

MICHELLE ZADA HALL

Michelle Zada Hall, a native of Columbus, Ohio, received her early dance training at BalletMet of Columbus and then went on to earn a Bachelor of Fine Arts in Dance Education, with a minor in Physical Education from The Ohio State University. She received additional training through the Alvin Ailey Summer Intensive program and by attending many conferences such as the International Association of Blacks in Dance and the Black College Dance Exchange. Her thirteen year professional performing career includes dancing as a member of Philadanco's second company "D/2", Lula Washington Dance Theatre, Cleo Parker Robinson Dance Ensemble and Dallas Black Dance Theatre, where she also served as costume mistress. In addition to dancing, Michelle has appeared as a featured actress in many local and nationwide commercials and print advertising, including McDonalds and Qdoba Mexican Grill. With a duo passion for performing and education, she has taught for privately owned dance studios and numerous master classes throughout the United States, Debbie Allen Summer Intensive, and San Antonio Summer Dance Enrichment. Michelle spent her first year with Dallas Independent School District as head of the Dance Department at W. W. Samuell High School. She is currently in her second year teaching at Booker T. Washington High School for the Performing and Visual Arts, where she.