

Hicks, William

William "Bill" Hicks, 77, of Lynden, Washington, died Tuesday, February 10, 2004, after a long illness. He was born November 26, 1926 in Bad Axe, son of the late Leroy E. Hicks and Clara Broomfield Hicks. He married Edna Quan of Oahu, Hawaii in 1947. He graduated from Bad Axe High School in 1944. He served in the United States Army as a counter Intelligence Agent in the European theater of the war. After the end of World War II, he served in Oahu, Hawaii as a Narcotics Agent for the government. He later was transferred to Blain, Washington as a Customs Agent for the government. Surviving are his wife, Edna; one daughter, Christine Chang and her husband, Jerry; two grandchildren, Tina and Jeff, of Lynden, Washington; one brother, James Hicks, of Bad Axe; and one sister, Genevieve (Hicks) Todd, of Bad Axe; and several nieces and nephews. Mr. Hicks requested that he be cremated, and to have his remains interred in the state of Washington.