

As we move into the late fall month of November, just wanting all to be safe. If you burn the wonderful smelling fall candles. Please be mindful to keep an eye on the melting wax for fire.

The weather is getting colder please make sure if you have wood burning heat to have the chimney cleaned to avoid having a flu fire.

Hoping you all are well this month.

Katherine Pittman AEF chairman

Email ibkate4u@yahoo.com