

IF YOU DIED TODAY ARE YOU 100% SURE OF HEAVEN?

For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all. (James 2:10)

If a man had a house of seven rooms, and six of them contained good things but the seventh contained evil things, then the whole house would be corrupt. It is similar to one drop of poison in a glass of water. So, if God then likens being unable to keep the whole law to the state of man, what hope is there for us? If the requirement is complete perfection to get into heaven, who would ever be able to enter therein?

The Bible makes it clear in the gospel message that everyone is a sinner (Romans 3:23) and the payment for our sin is death (Romans 6:23a). The sin of Adam and Eve passed on to all of us; that is why we do not live forever as God had originally intended. Furthermore, our soul will burn in hell forever after we die because our sin will keep us from heaven (Revelation 20:15). But the Bible says “For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten son that whosoever shall believeth in him shall not perish but have everlasting life” (John 3:16). Jesus’ death on the cross was a sacrifice of blood that God considers an atonement to wash away all our sins. Simple by asking Christ to save you, using a prayer similar to the one on the back here, your sin can all be forgiven you, even if you lived a good life but sinned very little.

IF YOU DIED TODAY ARE YOU 100% SURE OF HEAVEN?

For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all. (James 2:10)

If a man had a house of seven rooms, and six of them contained good things but the seventh contained evil things, then the whole house would be corrupt. It is similar to one drop of poison in a glass of water. So, if God then likens being unable to keep the whole law to the state of man, what hope is there for us? If the requirement is complete perfection to get into heaven, who would ever be able to enter therein?

The Bible makes it clear in the gospel message that everyone is a sinner (Romans 3:23) and the payment for our sin is death (Romans 6:23a). The sin of Adam and Eve passed on to all of us; that is why we do not live forever as God had originally intended. Furthermore, our soul will burn in hell forever after we die because our sin will keep us from heaven (Revelation 20:15). But the Bible says “For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten son that whosoever shall believeth in him shall not perish but have everlasting life” (John 3:16). Jesus’ death on the cross was a sacrifice of blood that God considers an atonement to wash away all our sins. Simple by asking Christ to save you, using a prayer similar to the one on the back here, your sin can all be forgiven you, even if you lived a good life but sinned very little.

IF YOU DIED TODAY ARE YOU 100% SURE OF HEAVEN?

For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all. (James 2:10)

If a man had a house of seven rooms, and six of them contained good things but the seventh contained evil things, then the whole house would be corrupt. It is similar to one drop of poison in a glass of water. So, if God then likens being unable to keep the whole law to the state of man, what hope is there for us? If the requirement is complete perfection to get into heaven, who would ever be able to enter therein?

The Bible makes it clear in the gospel message that everyone is a sinner (Romans 3:23) and the payment for our sin is death (Romans 6:23a). The sin of Adam and Eve passed on to all of us; that is why we do not live forever as God had originally intended. Furthermore, our soul will burn in hell forever after we die because our sin will keep us from heaven (Revelation 20:15). But the Bible says “For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten son that whosoever shall believeth in him shall not perish but have everlasting life” (John 3:16). Jesus’ death on the cross was a sacrifice of blood that God considers an atonement to wash away all our sins. Simple by asking Christ to save you, using a prayer similar to the one on the back here, your sin can all be forgiven you, even if you lived a good life but sinned very little.

IF YOU DIED TODAY ARE YOU 100% SURE OF HEAVEN?

For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all. (James 2:10)

If a man had a house of seven rooms, and six of them contained good things but the seventh contained evil things, then the whole house would be corrupt. It is similar to one drop of poison in a glass of water. So, if God then likens being unable to keep the whole law to the state of man, what hope is there for us? If the requirement is complete perfection to get into heaven, who would ever be able to enter therein?

The Bible makes it clear in the gospel message that everyone is a sinner (Romans 3:23) and the payment for our sin is death (Romans 6:23a). The sin of Adam and Eve passed on to all of us; that is why we do not live forever as God had originally intended. Furthermore, our soul will burn in hell forever after we die because our sin will keep us from heaven (Revelation 20:15). But the Bible says “For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten son that whosoever shall believeth in him shall not perish but have everlasting life” (John 3:16). Jesus’ death on the cross was a sacrifice of blood that God considers an atonement to wash away all our sins. Simple by asking Christ to save you, using a prayer similar to the one on the back here, your sin can all be forgiven you, even if you lived a good life but sinned very little.