

CLARA A. ADAMS

1910 - 1996

Clara A. Adams, 86, a native and lifelong resident of the Tuscola-Huron County area, died Friday afternoon, Oct. 11, in Bay Medical Care Facility, Essauville, following a lengthy illness.

She was born June 22, 1910, in Tuscola County, a daughter of Stephan and Anna (Muhrer) Kaatz. She was married to Herman Adams in Gagetown on April 17, 1937. He preceded her in death on July 3, 1970.

Surviving are one daughter and son-in-law, Irene and Albert Denton of Marquette, one son and daughter-in-law, Howard and Patricia Adams of Sebawaing, one step-daughter and her husband, Frances and Keith Winkel of Gaylord, 10 grandchildren, 14 great-grandchildren and many nieces and nephews.

As the last survivor of a family of 15, she was preceded in death by eight brothers and six sisters: Frank, George, John, Henry, Rudolph, Hugo, Frederick and Paul Kaatz, and Maria Kaatz, Anna Fettig, Martha Beguhn, Ella Högendorf, Helena Henry and Aldine Wether.

The funeral took place Monday morning, Oct. 14, in Dinkel-Juengel Funeral Home in Sebawaing. Rev. Keith Siventy officiated and burial was in St. Agatha Catholic Cemetery in Gagetown.

Those wishing to offer memorials are invited to consider New Salem Lutheran Church or the charity of the donors' choice.