

Ahearn, Eleanor

Eleanor M. Ahearn, 64, of North Road, N.H., died Friday, Feb. 15, 2002, at a Manchester, N.H., hospital. She was born in Ecorse on July 20, 1937, the daughter of Andrew and Sophia (Boguszewski) Nota. She had lived in Raymond, N.H., before moving to Candia, N.H., five years ago. Mrs. Ahearn was past president of the Raymond Lioness Club. She enjoyed bingo and was a devoted mother and grandmother. Survivors include her husband of 46 years, George Ahearn, formerly of Huron County; two sons, James Ahearn of Candia and Thomas Ahearn of Raymond; a daughter, Colleen Forsythe of Raymond; six grandchildren; a brother, Eugene Nota of Belleville; a sister, Delores Jean Mahood of Washington state; several nieces and nephews; a brother-in-law, Robert Ahearn and his wife, Sharon, of Kinde; and sisters-in-law Pat Decker and her husband, Frances, of Caro, Mary Ellen Horbes of Port Huron, Cora Lovik of Port Huron, and Sharon Wahl and her husband, Glenn, of Port Austin. She was preceded in death by a son, Steven Ahearn, in 1964; and a daughter, Ann Marie Ahearn, in 1967. A Mass of Christian burial took place on Wednesday, Feb. 20, 2002, at St. Paul Church in Candia with the Rev. Michael Kerper, pastor, as celebrant. Burial was in Holbrook Cemetery in Candia.