President Elect: Jorge Rocha talked about IASMC Mid-Winter meeting March 2023 in Michigan City, IN. Final details will be posted on the website soon. I will be working on a fund raiser in a joint venture with GLSAMC. See you in Charlotte next year.

1st VP: Lester, welcome, thank you for coming.

2nd VP: Luke Baker, Thanks for coming, thanks for helping set up the field, go back tell your temples how much fun you had.

3rd VP: Greg Heins, will be working with CJ for a fund raiser to sell a barrel of hand picked bourbon.

Communications: None

Sick & Visitation: Jay Alfirevic reports: Past president Don Shaffer has suffered from a mild heart attack and many others at Medinah are having issues. Don is doing well but just failed a stress test so he could not be here this weekend. Greg Heins reports: the family who does the diva derby hats for us has had a heart attack and kidney failure. Luke Baker reports: a brother from Morocco has lung cancer and wife has cancer.

Old Business: None

New Business: Dennis Green motion to move all Officers in line up one position leaving Sgt. of Arms open. Second by Rand Sepplin, motion carried. Motion by Greg and seconded by Rand to elect applicant Weston Bedore as Sgt. of Arms. Motion carried.

Good of the Order: Along with the Diva Derby we are doing a Temple Challenge for those who fly in and don't get a chance to ride anything. We are calling this the Potentates Challenge. Any Potentate or Divan member of his choosing may participate. We will work this in during the diva derby as they come in. Motion by Dennis Green to allow a noble to share a motor vehicle to be able to compete in completions. Motion seconded by Jay Alfirevic. Motion was discussed and motion carried. Motion by Dennis Green to have a by-law change to allow the combining of temples and teams to make a team to compete in Drill & Obstacle competitions. Second by Jay Alfirevic. Motion was discussed and carried. A draft will be drawn and presented at the Mid-Winter meeting for the By-Law change.

Presidents' notes: Great meeting, lets go have some fun
