

STANLEY VOLK

1915 - 1996

Stanley Volk, 81 of Akron, passed away Tuesday, Dec. 3 at Brian's House, Hampton Township.

Mr. Volk was born in Akron, son of the late Joseph and Anna (Dodick) Volk April 22, 1915 and had resided in the Akron-Fairgrove area all his life.

He attended and graduated from Akron Public School. On May 7, 1938 he was united in marriage to Elnora Leuenberger in Caro. She survives him.

Mr. Volk had retired from Case Company as service manager, and was very active in the community of Akron serving as its village president, clerk, chief of the Akron Volunteer Fire Department and church board member. His hobbies were many including sports, fishing, bowling, camping and whenever possible, traveling with his motor home. He was very active with Akron Merchants Softball Team.