4 Days, 3 Nights

Thursday ♦ Travel Day

"Gemutlichkeit!"

After a day of traveling, we'll pull into the picture postcard village of Stowe, Vermont where the von Trapp Family will welcome us to their unique mountain resort, featuring Austrian-inspired architecture and European-style accommodations. We'll enjoy stunning mountain views, old world comforts and impeccable service. A three-course dinner is included this evening in the Main Dining Room at the lodge. There will be entertainment nightly in the lounge as well as movies in the lodge theater. (D)

Friday ♦ Stowe, Vermont

This morning we'll awake to a country breakfast buffet included at the lodge. Our tour begins where the famed movie, The Sound of Music ends, with a family member relating the actual story of the von Trapp family's escape from the Nazis. We'll learn about their early years in America and view a documentary film of Maria von Trapp's final visit to their former home in Salzburg, Austria. There will be time to browse their Austrian Gift Shop and have your souvenir signed by one of the family.

Spend your afternoon in the picturesque village of Stowe, leisurely browsing the shops and enjoying lunch on your own. The church in this charming village is the most photographed church steeple in New England. Later we'll tour Ben & Jerry's ice cream factory and enjoy a taste of the sample flavors as they come off the line!

We'll return to the lodge for afternoon tea. Dinner this evening is a buffet at the new Bierhall overlooking the brewery where the von Trapp family brew craft beers. (B, D)

Saturday ♦ Local Touring

A day of touring with our local guide awaits us this morning after we indulge in the included country breakfast buffet at the lodge. Our first stop is the Morse Maple Sugar Farm where we will learn how maple syrup is made from the entertaining Mr. Morse himself in his Woodshed Theater. He'll direct us through the sugar house and the Vermont Farm Life Museum, as well as the country store.

Soon we'll depart for Montpelier to tour the state capitol, the smallest, and probably the prettiest, in the US. Lunch is on your own at the State Capitol Café.

Our last stop of the day is the Cabot Cheese Annex where we'll find a fantastic selection of their award-winning cheeses, as well as many other Vermont specialties. Next door is Lake Champlain Chocolates and the beautiful Danforth Pewter store. Nearby is the Smugglers' Notch Distillery and Tasting Room. The Green Mountain Coffee Visitor Center and Café is a great place to stock up on their flavorful brews.

Back at the lodge, we'll enjoy afternoon tea. A three-course dinner is included this evening in the Main Dining Room. (B,D)

Sunday ♦ Travel Home

After another sumptuous country breakfast buffet, we'll depart for home with some fond memories of our holiday at the Trapp Family Lodge. (B)
