

The Ohio Dressage Society Presents

A Clinic with

Janet “Dolly” Hannon

USEF

“S” Dressage and “R” Western Dressage
Judge

February 29-March 1, 2020

Milestone Farms, 2678 Alward Road S.W.

Pataskala, OH 43062

Janet “Dolly” Hannon is a USEF Senior judge and a USDF Gold, Silver, and Bronze Medalist. Dolly is a member of the USDF faculty, a USDF certified instructor through Fourth Level, and is the Chairperson of the USDF Freestyle Committee. She has been teaching, primarily dressage, for over 35 years. Dolly is very passionate about correct classical training of the horse with clarity and kindness and is committed to a positive and respectful learning environment for horse and rider. She works with all breeds of horses and teaches all levels of riders. Her only requirement is that the student really wants to learn.

Both Classical Dressage and Western Dressage riders are encouraged to attend.

Auditing Fees:

ODS Members $15/Day or $25/Weekend

Non-Members $25/Day or $40/Weekend

Rider Fees:

ODS Members $175/Ride

Non-Members $225/Ride

For more information about riding or auditing, contact Jennifer Roth at dressagerider1980@gmail.com

See www.OhioDressageSociety.com for more details and follow the Ohio Dressage Society on Facebook!