President's Letter

Quilters,

This is my last one! I am looking forward to being more relaxed at the meetings, having a chance to eat dinner after the workshops, and hand quilting during the business meetings. Thank you for the beautiful quilt, which will remind me of the raffle quilt and the strata workshop. I am leaving you in qualified hands with Patty and the new executive board.

I wanted to especially thank those of you who put up with some of my foibles. I appreciate:

...those who waited in their cars in the parking lot for me to show up and unlock the lodge;

...those who e-mailed me and waited too long for a response, and then called me anyway;

....those who talked me into cancelling the December meeting when it was snowing;

....those who talked me into rescheduling the holiday party instead of cancelling it;

....those who didn't criticize when I missed the deadline for the newsletter;

....those who scheduled meetings at lunchtime at restaurants.

Yours truly, Joanne

Sunshine and Shadows

If you know of anyone in the Guild who could use some cheering up after an accident, surgery, illness or death in the family, please call (215-493-6693) or email (marydesloovere@gmail.com) Mary deSloovere. She will be happy to send a card on behalf of the guild.

Hospitality

Thanks to these fabulous bakers and bringers for the November refreshments: Linda W; Mary deS; Jill F; Ellen H; Ruth G; Mary R; Marla K; and Karen D.

We'll have our Holiday Party in December with refreshments provided by everybody!

PROGRAM

Workshop —1 pm until the Mod Podge runs out!

For $10, the guild will provide the Mod Podge, foam brushes, and an item to Mod Podge to get you started. Feel free to bring lampshades (even those stained ones!), glass candle lamps, wooden trays, bracelets or boxes, anything that ISN'T plastic. The lampshades must be made of a fiber. Also bring fabric with motifs or patterns that will cut up nicely to apply to the objects and a pair of scissors. You can also bring strips of fabric or pre-cut squares of fabrics for a geometric look.

You might want to wear an apron, but Mod Podge is washable, so it will not stay in your clothes if you get some on your sleeve or whatever (or your hair - don't ask how I know). In the workshop, you'll get tips for applying your fabric pieces and the care of your items once you're finished. Items dry very quickly, so you'll be able to take home anything you Mod Podge without getting your car all sticky. Have a plastic garbage bag or towel for covering your car seat or trunk just in case they are still a bit sticky, but they shouldn't be.

If you want to cover a box or tray, I highly recommend you apply a coat of acrylic paint before you come. However, if you don't have time to pre-paint, you can do that at the beginning of the workshop and the painted item should be dry and ready to Mod Podge during the afternoon. I use Liquitex acrylic paint, and it dries very quickly. You don't need to paint a lampshade or glass candle thing, but boxes and trays need that coat of paint to cover gaps between fabric pieces.

Any questions, please email Jan at drjph1@yahoo.com and I'll try to help you.

Mod Podge warning: Once you start, it's hard to stop. You'll need counseling!

Trivia question: Where does the name "Mod Podge" come from??

Holiday Party 6:00 pm

Evening Program: Holiday Party and gift swap! Bring a wrapped item for gifting - you can re-gift an item, wrap up something from your stash, or bring a brand new item. Serious or silly, all are welcome. It's a good time to unload that tacky holiday sweater from Aunt Sue!!!! (I'm so sorry if somebody really owns—and likes—one of these sweaters!!!) Remember to bring a special food item for the Holiday Buffet and a donated item for the Food Pantry!

Minutes from the November Board Meeting

In attendance: Joanne G.; Karen D.; Patti G.; Mary deS.; Camille Q.; Marla K.; Stephanie G.; Ellen H.; Janet S.; Jan H.; Al A. (quorum met: 4 exec. + 7 comm)

Membership

It's almost winter, the brilliant colors of fall replaced by the greys and browns and soft blacks of bare branches, sure to inspire a quilt or two. And, it is time to renew your CHQ membership! Now!!! Right away!!! Only $35 a year (that's less than $3 a meeting!) Please bring your dues to the Welcome table at the next meeting, or mail your check, payable to CHQ, to me: Camille Quinton (check roster for address). If you renew at the December meeting, you will get a small gift from the guild as a thank you.

According to the by-laws, members need to renew by the January meeting. Membership cards for 2015 will be available at the February meeting.

Please give a warm CHQ greeting to our newest member, Kelly Newgarde, an intermediate quilter who wrote on her membership form that she is willing to try anything, in quilting of course! With the many talents represented in the guild, she is sure to find someone to try it with!

A lot will be happening at our meeting on December 14 - our holiday party and gift exchange. Do a good deed so Santa keeps you on his "Nice" list - invite a member who hasn't attended in a while to carpool with you - the more the merrier at our end of year party!

See you at the celebration!

This and That

If you're out and about this holiday season and take a break at Teaberry's in Flemington, don't forget to write Courthouse Quilters on the back of your check and we'll get 5% of your tab!

A Trio of Tips for Holiday Quilts

Keep these tips in mind when storing and displaying holiday (and everyday) quilts!

- When you remove your holiday quilts from storage, a round in the fluff cycle of the dryer will make them look fresh and ready for hanging.
- If a quilt displayed on the wall of your home is always replaced by a holiday quilt during the season, use an adjustable curtain rod so you can compensate for different sizes of quilts without having to keep track of dowels.
- To store your holiday quilts until next year, wrap them right side out around empty wrapping paper rolls, followed by a layer of old sheets. This will prevent creases and wearing at folding points.

Looking for a quilter . . . Hello — I am wondering if someone in your group, or someone you may know would be interested in making a blanket or pillow case out of my father-in-law's favorite clothing. He has passed and I would like to have something made for Christmas for his loved ones. Please let me know either way and what the cost would be. Thank you for any help you may be able to provide.

QUILT ALLIANCE NEWS

All of the "Inspired By" contest quilts were donated by their makers, and after a national exhibition tour that included these venues: Original Sewing & Quilt Expo, The City Quilter and the International Quilt Festival, the quilts are being auctioned on eBay.

45. "Organic Trees" by Carol Esch, Cotton fabric, shibori-dyed
Mainly, I love trees, especially birch and aspen. This small quilt was made "organically" from fabric I buried in the dirt for three weeks, fabric I dyed and fabric shibori-dyed. I hope it has an "organic" feel to it with the quilting and uneven binding and raw edges.

For more information, go to:

http://www.allianceforamericanquilts.org/projects/galleries/Inspired%20By/gallery/?utm_source=Inspired+By+2014+Auction+press+release&utm_campaign=2014+inspired+by+auction+begins+&utm_medium=e-mail

Robin Buscemi's red and white quilt was included in the stunning display of red and white quilts at Houston Quilt Market in celebration of the IQF Ruby Jubilee.show at Houston. A Ruby Jubilee celebrates the 40th anniversary of something.

Elena Stokes has had a banner year.

The quilt at left was submitted to a SAQA special exhibit at the Houston Quilt Festival and it sold. The title is Moonshine. (and I want it!!)

Another quilt was accepted into Quilt National. Yet another quilt continues to be shown at the Hunterdon Art Museum in Clinton through January 4.

A Personal note from your Membership Chair:

I've been a member over five years, and was in the guild for two years before I was asked to take over Membership. This year's quilt show was the first show that I was able to work on from start to finish. The quilts were gorgeous, the venue beautiful, but the best part for me was getting to know some of you better. I'm not a great quilter (I do a lot of other things as you know), so quilting is not the only reason for me to be an active member of CHQ. It's the wonderful group of people that I have come to know. Hours of work go into the show, but I never felt overtaxed – I was having fun working with my new friends! I encourage everyone to get more involved in the guild – there are a few committees that need extra hands – no big time commitment, or meeting commitments, just assistance to get the job done.

Quilt Show Email List - help with maintaining the email list. Knowledge of Excel a definite plus, but if you can put stamps on postcards, you already have a skill that can benefit this committee.

Special Events – if you like organizing parties, this is for you – the New Member Tea and Holiday Party are two activities that could use your input. Special Events is now a separate committee from Programs, which is a job and a half for any one person, and Hospitality.

Library - do you love to browse through the quilt book section at the bookstore or “read” quilt magazines? You are a natural to lead the library committee. Ellen H. has whipped the library into shape, and your task is to continue finding new library materials. At meetings, help members find books of interest. For the newsletter, write a short monthly column about new and interesting books and online quilting sources.

Programs – the program chair sets up the speakers, but extra hands are needed the day of the event. The skills needed are willingness to set up and oversee the day workshop. When outside speakers visit us (only a few times a year), we need persons to act as CHQ ambassador to keep the speaker happy!

Charity - Andrea has wonderful projects planned, but could use extra hands in organizing the projects, and help in overseeing the charity sew workshops which occur two or three times a year.

Committee chairs are planning a brief presentation at the December meeting. Their contact information is in this newsletter, so please let them know you can help.

There are many ways to get more involved – just a little of your time will help keep the guild humming as smoothly as your featherweight, and you will gain new friends.

The Basics:

The CHQ Weather Challenge includes two categories: Quilts and Other. "Other" may include wearables, mixed media, or any form of textile art.

Members may enter one item per category. Each item must have a weather-related theme.

The Weather Challenge items are due at the April 2015 meeting.

The Nurture Nature Center Quilt Exhibit:

This year, there will be an exhibit of our challenge entries at the Nurture Nature Center, 516 Northampton St., Easton, PA. The exhibit will begin with an opening reception on Thursday, April 16, 2015, from 6:30 to 9 p.m. and will close on Saturday, May 30, 2015.

Art exhibits can be viewed on Wednesdays, 10 AM–1 PM, Thursdays 6 PM–9 PM, and Saturdays 10 AM–1 PM. To view by appointment, call 610-253-4432.

Members may participate in the guild challenge without showing their quilts in the exhibit.

Exhibited quilts may be listed for sale, if desired. The Nurture Nature Center will take a 25% commission on all sales, so set your price accordingly.

Requirements:

If you will not be entering your item in the exhibit at the Nurture Nature Center, there are no restrictions or requirements beyond the theme.

IF YOU INTEND TO SUBMIT YOUR ENTRY TO THE NURTURE NATURE CENTER EXHIBIT:

Your quilt must not exceed a size of 60" by 60". Any other item must be small enough to hang on a hanger or be placed on a wide windowsill at the center.

Your quilt must have an AQS-style hanging sleeve. For instructions:

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=m_Vd82aSiAA

You must bring two copies of the intake form to the April meeting. Your quilt cannot be identified as yours prior to voting, so keep your intake form separate from your quilt until after the competition.

You must bring a label to be pinned onto your quilt AFTER the competition with your name and phone number.

You must bring a pillowcase with your name and phone number for transport of your quilt after the competition. Bring the quilt to the meeting in an unmarked bag or pillowcase.

Ellen will take your quilt home the night of the April meeting, April 12, and deliver it to the Nurture Nature Center on Monday morning, April 13. Your quilt will be in Ellen's home overnight without being insured. Once it reaches the NNC, it will be covered by their insurance.

Pick up will be June 1 at the NNC. The intake form must be presented to pick up your quilt. Any quilts not picked up will be stored in Ellen's home and returned at the June meeting. Again, Ellen does not have special insurance to cover these quilts.

Machine Embroidery with Patty Gertz

Our incoming Madame President, Patty Gertz, enlightened us with a presentation about machine embroidery. She brought in many samples of her work to show us. Claire R and Al A also brought in some of their machine embroidery to inspire us.

Show and Tell

Al A made this quilt from an AQS pattern. ↑

Rosie E made this tiled soap holder for her bathroom. It's portable so when she moves, she can take it with her. ↑

↑ Marla K made this quilt from OBW fabric, but it's not a OBW!

← Karen, Patty and Mary presented outgoing president Joanne with this quilt made from raffle quilt pieces to thank her for her two years of leadership! She was very pleased!

Claire R made this jacket from a sweat-shirt. It's embellished with couched yarn. ←

HELPING OTHERS

GOOD NEWS HOME FOR WOMEN

The residents, alumni, staff and volunteers of the Good News Home for Women recently completed this quilt and auctioned it off at their annual banquet. Guild member Joanne Gardner worked with the women who each produced a white square with a positive image of the Good News Home. Joanne then pieced the top and the residents tied the quilt in a frame. Supplies were purchased through a mini-grant. FUNDING HAS BEEN MADE POSSIBLE IN PART BY THE HUNTERDON COUNTY BOARD OF CHOSEN FREEHOLDERS, THROUGH FUNDS ADMINISTERED BY THE HUNTERDON COUNTY CULTURAL & HERITAGE COMMISSION.

DITTY BAGS FOR SEAMEN

Despite the hilarity over the name of our most recent Sunday workshop, twelve members of the guild came out to spend the afternoon producing sixty-six ditty bags. The bags will be filled with toiletries and knitted items by the Seamen's Church Institute and given to sailors who must be away from home at Christmas. Our Charity chair, Andrea, filled a bin with "masculine" fabrics. Giselle, who came with an armload of already-completed bags, was our presser and cutter, and Al arrived with a scary weapon-like tool called a bodkin for inserting the cord at the top of the bags. Karen provided a themed musical recording of "The Wreck of the Edmond Fitzgerald." The bags have been shipped to Port Newark for distribution. For more information on the project, visit <http://www.seamenschurch.org/sites/default/files/sci-ditty-bag.pdf>.

From Ellen Heath

Sixty-six ditty bags ready to be shipped to the Seamen's Church Institute. The SCI's International Seafarers' Center, located in the heart of Port Newark, NJ, serves the largest port complex on the East Coast of the US. SCI welcomes all seafarers and port workers, including truckers, stevedores, and warehouse workers, to this friendly and safe environment for relaxation, recreation, and spiritual refreshment-and a ditty bag!

The lodge was abuzz with all of the activity for charity. Marla K shows off a ditty bag.
