

Autumn Snow: Story Activity Session

LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

The Autumn Snow activity session can help students:

- appreciate nature, especially the fall season;
- develop positive relationships through outdoor play;
- Encourages creative thinking
- learn about trees, and how they change colors in the fall.
- get outdoors and interact with nature

ACTIVITY STEPS (APPROX 30-40 MINS):

1. Teacher may begin the session by asking the kids about what they love about fall (e.g., What's your favorite thing about the fall season; students may say carving pumpkins, dressing up, turkey etc.?)
2. Teacher then reads the book, Autumn Snow out loud or presents the Autumn Snow Video book below:
3. When finished reading, the teacher will ask questions about the story, and discuss answers in a way that helps fulfill any of the lesson objectives mentioned above.
4. If time allows, the teacher conclude the session with any one of the hands-on-activities below:
  1. Color the Autumn Snowman (recommended for ages 3-5 years): Each student will receive a color sheet of an autumn snowman. They are to color his body, face, and decorate his clothes. Click here to download color page:
  2. Autumn Leaf Display (5-8) -Teacher will gather information/pictures about local trees in the area (i.e., name, kind, autumn color change, etc.), and then make an informational display. The teacher can talk about the leaves and/or have the students describe them. Might be fun to have the students guess the kinds of trees or the colors they think they change in the fall.
  3. Pin the Autumn SnowMan (recommended for ages 5-8): Divide students into 2 teams.. Each team receives leaves, pinecone nose, and eyes. Blind folded, they are to pin on snowman. (this game can be likened to Pin the tail on the donkey; teacher creates the autumn snowman by using a variety of materials poster board, glue, fake leaves, velcro, etc.)
