

Butterfly

Sitting on your mother's lap
You could see the whole wide world
So much care and worry
For such a little girl

Taking on the burden
That the past has left for you
Speaking truth to power
And enduring ridicule

Never forget
You're a butterfly
Watching the Earth
And oceans from on high
Never forget
You're a butterfly
Never forget
You're a butterfly

Working through your childhood
So that others might have theirs
Standing up to robber barons,
Rulers, and their heirs

Singleness of purpose
And you know the time is near
Pouring out your heart
For every single being here

Never forget
You're a butterfly
A beautiful thread
In the web of life
Never forget
You're a butterfly
Never forget
You're a butterfly
