WHEN RELIGION MEETS POLITICS

Is it possible to disagree with someone politically and yet love them unconditionally?

Churches and faith communities are not immune to political divisiveness. So how, and why, should Christians from both sides of the aisle pursue unity? The unity and diversity of first-century Jesus followers shocked and intrigued the ancient world. How can modern-day Christians follow their lead?

On Sunday morning, October 18 at 9:45 a.m. the "FEARLESS CONVERSATION" Small Group will begin a new video series by Andy Stanley, entitled "When Religion Meets Politics". Join us for this three-week study and discussion. We meet in the Education Wing, last classroom on the right.
