2018 PRO FOOTBALL CAMP OFFERS UNIQUE, FREE PRAISE WITH THE PROS EVENT

On Wednesday, July 11th, Pro Football Camp is partnering with the Calvary Worship Center to host Praise with the Pros! Praise with the Pros provides a rewarding, inspiring, free event where attendees will hear testimonies from NFL athletes on how their faith guides them both on-and-off-the-football field. This event will feature former Steelers linebacker Anthony Trucks and two-time Super Bowl champion Greg Scruggs as the keynote speakers, as well as Texans linebacker Dylan Cole, Rams QB Bryan Scott, and Buccaneers tight end Donnie Ernsberger sharing their testimonies too. Praise with the Pros runs from 6:30-8 PM at Calvary Worship Center, 501 Castle Road, Colorado Springs, CO, 80904.

“What an amazing evening with an awesome message. Football is great but I want my boys to know that serving God is even more important. Hearing and seeing the pros praise God for their talents was eye-opening for my boys!” shared one parent.

This view is reinforced by keynote speaker Trucks, who shared why he donates his time to speak at Praise with the Pros, “The most important thing that brings me back to Praise with the Pros each year is the desire to share my faith and story with the campers, their families, and the community. My life didn’t start out the best, but through my journey I have seen God glorified as He helped me to overcome those challenges. I hope my story can encourage and inspire others.”

Four additional NFL athletes will speak, each looking to share more about the challenges they faced and how their faith carried them through each challenge. Additionally, Worship Mob will lead the worship singing throughout the evening. The evening will conclude with one-on-one opportunities to interact with the NFL athletes, getting pictures and signing autographs.
