

Knoblock, Suzanne

Suzanne Marie Knoblock, 53, of Bad Axe died Tuesday, Sept. 26, 2000, at her home in the company of her family. She was born on Oct. 8, 1946, in Detroit. Sue was a 1964 graduate of Bad Axe High School and completed a course of study at the Detroit Business College. She was employed as secretary/court recorder for the Huron County Circuit Court and Huron County District Court. In addition to being a devoted wife and mother, Sue enjoyed spending time with her family, particularly her five grandchildren, and lovingly caring for her home. She took great delight in relaxing on the beach, walking on the Port Austin breakwall, cross country skiing and staying physically fit. She was always very close to God and participated in many church activities, including serving as Eucharistic minister, religious educator and Bible studies group participant. She was a mentor of the faith to many friends and family members. During her life, Sue was a parishioner at St. Edward's Catholic Church in Kinde, St. Michael's Catholic Church in Port Austin and Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Bad Axe. She was preceded in death by her fathers, August Drogosch, who passed away in 1947, and Roy Pratt, who passed away in 1980. Surviving are her husband, M. Richard Knoblock; four children, Michael August Knoblock, at home, Emily Suzanne Knoblock, a student at Michigan State University, Julie Ann Champagne of Filion and Paul Daniel Mousseau and his wife, Holly, of Grand Haven; her mother, Helen Veronica Pratt of Filion; her sister, Debra Schaefer and her husband, Wade, of Essexville; her brother, Daniel Roy Pratt of Oakland, Calif.; and grandchildren, Margot, Zachary, Nycole, Daniel and Katie. Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated at 11 a.m. Friday, Sept. 29, 2000, at Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Bad Axe. The Rev. Jack Leipert will officiate with burial in St. Michael's Catholic Church Cemetery in Port Austin. There will be a prayer service at 7 tonight at the Knoblock Funeral Home in Kinde. Visitation is from noon to 9 p.m. today and 9 a.m. to 10 a.m. Friday at the funeral home. Memorials may be made to Huron County Hospice Care and the American Cancer Society.
