

Forge, Charlotte

Charlotte Grace Forge, 88, of Bay Port, died Friday, January 30, 2004, at Bay Regional Medical Center in Bay City following a brief illness. She was born July 21, 1915 in Saginaw, daughter of the late Harvey and Luella (Scheurman) Light. She was united in marriage to Lewis "Chuck" Forge on July 21, 1934 in Bay Port. He preceded her in death on March 14, 1993. Grace was a member of the Bay Port United Methodist Church and also a life member of the Order of Eastern Star, Elkton Chapter #431. Surviving are two sons, William C. Forge and his wife, Janis (Magill), of Bay Port, and Robert L. Forge and his wife, Patricia (Pistro), of Wolverine Lake; six grandchildren, William C. Forge II and his wife, Janet (Dzendzel), Jeannine (Forge) Batterson and her husband, Ted, Bethany (Forge) Sprunk and her husband, Lt. Col. Richard Sprunk, Kimberley (Forge) Hurst and her husband, Eric, Robbin (Forge) Marsico and her husband Mark, Tina (Forge) Graves and her husband Mark; 15 great grandchildren, William C. Forge III, Jenna, Michelle Grace Forge, Philip and David Batterson, Havilah, Laura, Hannah, Nathanael and Emma Jane Sprunk, Daxton, Zackery and Bo Hurst, Cara and Robert Marsico; and her good canine friend, Bucky. One brother, Sidney Light, preceded her in death. According to Grace's wishes, cremation has taken place at Sunset Valley Crematory in Bay City. There will be no visitation or funeral. A memorial service will take place later this spring in Bay Port. Arrangements are being handled by the Dinkel-Juengel Funeral Home in Sebawaing. Those planning an expression of sympathy are asked to consider Bay Port United Methodist Church or Bay Hospice.
