ITINERARY | DAY-BY-DAY

📍 Miami, Florida

DAY 1, June 24, 2020

Depart for Cuba today

Depart from Miami today and arrive in Havana, Cuba. Upon arrival at the Jose Marti International Airport, you will meet your local guide after clearing immigration and customs.

Enjoy a panoramic bus tour of Havana including a stop to see Revolution Square and Vedado in route to your hotel. The Plaza is the 31st largest city square in the world and notable as being where many political rallies take place. Transfer onward to lunch and then the Four Points Sheraton, your home for the next five nights.

Head onward to your local hotel. Hotel NH Collection Victoria is conveniently located in the heart of downtown Havana, just a few minutes' walk from the bustling seafont. This stylish, minimalist hotel sits within walking distance of the Old Town, and an abundance of bars, restaurants and shops. The hotel has onsite dining, access to Wi-Fi (fee applies), swimming pool, and a business center. Guest rooms have AC, bathroom amenities, safe, hairdryer, iron & board, minibar, and a flat screen satellite TV.

Enjoy your first taste of locally sourced food this evening as you join your guide and fellow travelers for a welcome dinner at the La Fontana Paladar.

Overnight: NH Collection Hotel Victoria

Meals: Lunch & Dinner

DAY 2, June 25

Cultural program in Havana

Please Note: Breakfast is included daily in your program.

Meet with representatives from the Cuban Institute of Friendship with People. This mandatory meeting focuses on Cuban/U.S. relations, and is a required component of all U.S. visits to Cuba.

From there begin your walking tour of the historic center of Old Havana, a village founded in 1519 and declared a World Heritage site by UNESCO in 1982. There will be an explanation of the projects carried out by the City Historian's Office for the rehabilitation of Old Havana.

Lunch will be provided at a local restaurant this afternoon.

After lunch, spend time with staff at a local community project like La Casa del Niño y la Niña. This community projects helps school-age children with their schooling as well as art and cultural studies. This is a great opportunity to meet the kids and hear them speak about their lives and this project. The motto of the project is: Listening to young voices and taking them into account for a better world.

Dinner is on your own this evening.

DAY 3, June 26

Professional program in Havana

Today the group will meet with counterparts in the morning and afternoon. This will include discussions with a local medical professional to provide information on many topics related to your profession including access to health care and rehabilitation services for people with disabilities and illnesses across the lifespan, academic training for occupational and physical therapists in Cuba, school-based services as well as maximizing quality of life for those with disabilities.

Enjoy lunch and a cooking class at Jardin de los Milagros Private Restaurant this afternoon.

Continue your professional meetings with a visit to either a local polyclinic or geriatric rehabilitation center to meet with OT, PT, rehabilitation and related medical professionals.

Dinner is on your own this evening. Later tonight, attend a neighborhood street party with the residents of the block. It's a great opportunity to interact with the locals!

DAY 4, June 27

Morning Meeting & Afternoon Cultural

After breakfast, the group will visit La Castellana Medical Center. This medical facility is comprised of a cluster of buildings, greenhouses, and gardens in a peaceful urban setting. They specialize in treating those with disabilities. They also provide vocational skills training for approximately 250 patients by 260 staff members, including teachers, administrators, and medical personnel.

Lunch will be provided at a local paladar.

Explore the Museo de Bellas Artes (Fine Arts Museum) this afternoon. Dedicated exclusively to Cuban art collections beginning in the mid-16th century, but spanning the 17th and 19th centuries, the museum has galleries devoted to landscape, religious subjects and the Costumbrismo narrative scenes of Cuban life. Other galleries are devoted to more current work and are recognized for the extensive collection of Hyperrealism and the latest generation of Cuban artists whose works all reflect the strong symbolic imagery prevalent in recent decades.

Dinner will be provided prior to a performance of "Parisien Cabaret" at the Hotel Nacional this evening.

Havana, Cuba

DAY 5, June 28

Cultural Program

After breakfast, the group will visit the Havana Compás Dance Company, recognized nationally and internationally for combining dance and percussion. It has accumulated more than a decade of work in favor of Cuban culture. The use of batá drums, tumbadoras, drumsticks, castanets, shekerés, heels, flip flops, keys, stools and percussive chairs, mostly made by the maestro Eduardo Córdova, makes this dance company one of the best scenic proposals of Cuba.

Lunch will be provided this afternoon.

After lunch visit the Casa de Los Abuelos (The House of Grandparents). Meet with the elderly, their relatives and staff of the center to learn about care for the elderly in Cuba. Enjoy time interacting with the local people. You might play dominos, distribute desserts, or just sit and chat with them about their lives in Cuba.

This evening’s farewell reception is at the Santa Isabel Hotel terrace in Old Havana.
