

I was having problems with light headedness and balance problems. I did not know what to do about it. I talked with Dr. Sanders and he had me take some test that indicated why I was having some problems. He had me see a balance physical therapist. I took the physical therapy sessions and they helped a lot. I did not experience a problem with my balance after that. I'm not sure why, but the physical therapy seemed to work!

Anonymous